TASTING NOTES

Commented by Olivier Poussier in the January 2025

Color : A dark ruby hue.

Nose : The nose is juicy, with aromas that combine ripeness, featuring notes of black cherry along with peppery and violet nuances. The aromatic profile is concentrated, and the wine is enhanced by a sense of terroir depth. The mineral dimension brought by the granite is evident.

Palate : The wine on the palate confirms this sensation. The palate is structured, but without excess generosity. The texture has a nice chew, with tannins more pronounced, yet without any harshness in style.

Service temperature : 59°F
